

THE WALLS

2019 McANDREW

BEHIND THE NAME

Named after “Doc” McAndrew, who first planted Chardonnay grapes in the Columbia River Gorge, this wine is classic Washington meets Chablis.

Stoney minerality and bright acidity, it is a Chardonnay that could easily fall in line with the finest of Burgundy.

Apple, pear and seaside aromas shine with a dazzle of citrus and the softest touch of oak.

Fantastic with a dozen oysters and works wonders along-side washed-rind cheeses such as Epoisses.
